OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 25 March 1971

1. [] - GLC) Mrs. Harford, in the office of Representative Sam Gibbons (D., Fla.), called and asked if we could have a personnel recruiter contact a retired military officer in Tampa, Florida, who is interested in employment possibilities with the Agency. He is [] Tampa, Florida. Arrangements have been made for the area recruiter to contact [] on his next trip to Tampa.

2. [] - GLC) J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called. He referred to the Evans and Novak column which appeared in the Washington Post on 24 March on the subject of the Soviet backfire in Mexico. Sourwine said the Subcommittee is interested in doing a documented study or hearing on this subject even if it says no more than was contained in the Evans and Novak column. Sourwine added he was not sure we were the ones he should contact on this, but asked if we would look into it and give him our advice about it. He said if it was our opinion that nothing should be done then they would accept that decision. I told him I would check on it and be back in touch with him.

3. [] - GLC) In the absence of Ed Braswell, I talked with Jack Ticer, on the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, about the draft legislation to amend section 5232 of title 10 of the U.S. Code having to do with appointments to the grade of general in the Marine Corps. Ticer confirmed that the draft bill had been received, but said it had not been formally introduced. Braswell has talked with Ticer about the legislation indicating that their present position is to await House action on the legislation.

4. [] JMM) Accompanied the Director and Messrs. Duckett, [] who appeared before the House Armed Services Committee where the Director delivered a world roundup briefing.

5. [] - JMM) Richard Moose, of the Muskie Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Law and Organization of Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to confirm the Director's appearance at 0930 on Monday, 29 March. I said the Director planned to appear, and understood the subject would be strictly limited to matters bearing on the SALT negotiations. Moose said this was indeed the case and Phil Farley, of ACDA, was scheduled to appear immediately after the Director on the same morning.

STAT

6. [] - LLM) Met with freshman Representative Jack F. Kemp (R., N. Y.) and provided him with a suggested draft reply to answer an inquiry by [] on whether the fighting in Laos is, in fact, an opium war. Mr. Kemp was very thankful for the help.

Mr. Kemp told me that he was President of the Freshman Republicans in the House. He said he was very interested in learning more about the Agency and that this is an interest shared by almost all of the 23 freshman Republicans, whom he described as "solid types." It was agreed that I would look into the possibility of an Agency briefing of this group some time after the 20th of April and be back in touch with him. I also met Mr. James Cromwell, Mr. Kemp's Administrative Assistant, who likewise was very congenial and appeared to be favorably disposed toward the Agency.

9. [] - LLM) Mr. Robert Horner, Chief Investigator, House Internal Security Committee, called and reported on the clash which had taken place between Chairman Ichord and freshman Committee member Robert F. Drinan (D., Mass.) in connection with the appearance of [] early in the morning. After checking with [] SA/ADDP, and being assured that [] and [] were advised, I met with Horner and Richard Schultz, Counsel, House Internal Security Committee, and received their assurances that Chairman Ichord would not permit Mr. Drinian to pursue a line of questioning with [] who was scheduled to testify later in the day, which would violate our existing understanding with the Committee. Following [] testimony, Horner advised that the session had gone smoothly and Mr. Drinian had not posed any problem questions.

10. [] - LLM) Met with J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and gave him the address at which [] could be reached. (See Journal of 20 January 1971.) Mr. Sourwine asked whether [] would react positively to a letter from him. I told him I didn't know, but I would try to find out and be back in touch. Mr. Sourwine said he felt he could be helpful to [] in connection with the publication of his manuscript. I agreed with him that he wouldn't want to subpoena [] nor would he want to do anything that would adversely affect his efforts to get his work published and to establish himself.
